Genova

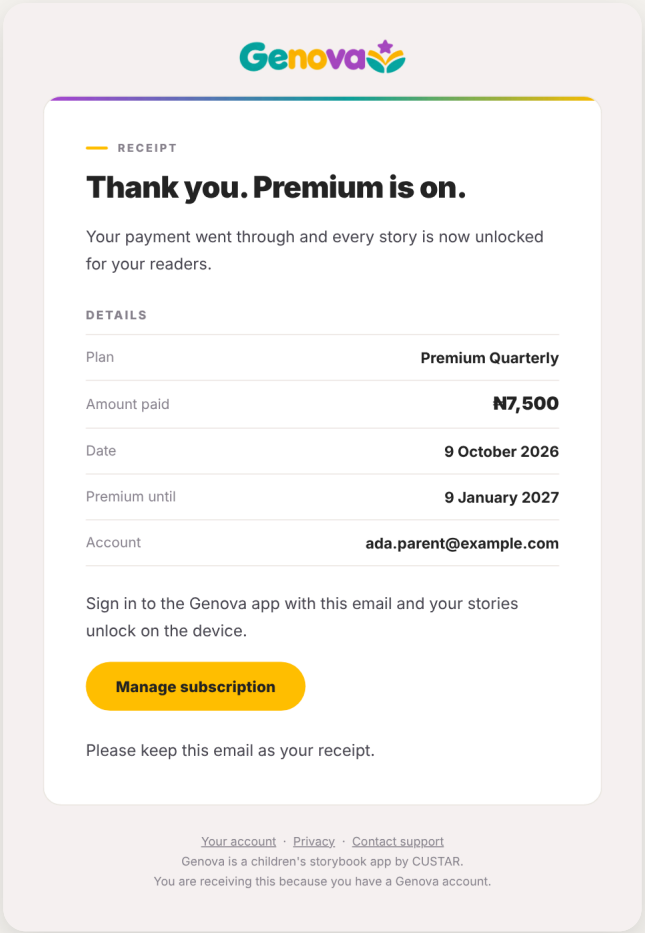

Email designs

Quiet, spacious and consistent: one headline, short copy, hairline receipts, a single amber action. Light and dark mode, readable on a phone, with a plain-text version of every message.

PAYMENT UNSUCCESSFUL

We could not take your payment

Your last Genova Premium payment did not go through. This can happen when a card has expired, has too little balance, or was declined by the bank.

> Good news: Premium stays on until 9 January 2027. Update your payment details before then and nothing changes.

SUBSCRIPTION CANCELLED

Your subscription has been cancelled

You will not be charged again. Premium stays on until 9 January 2027, so your readers can keep going until then.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

- After 9 January 2027 your account moves to the Free plan.
- Reader profiles and favourites are kept.
- Stories you saved offline that need Premium will lock.

Changed your mind? You can come back any time.

How they fit together

- Edit anything in Admin > Email > Templates: subject, label, text. Preview before saving. Syntax: "# Headline", "## Section", "- Label: value" for receipt rows, "> note", "!picture", "Button".
- Automatic: welcome, receipt, payment failed, cancellation, passcode/password changed, support message received, and three scheduled reminders (renewal coming up, Premium ending, last chance).
- Sent by the team: new story and broadcast, to any group, from Admin > Email > Send.
- Account emails (confirm email, reset code, change email) are sent by Supabase Auth. Paste the HTML from supabase/auth-email-templates into Supabase > Authentication > Email Templates.
- Ideas for later: reading milestones ("Ada finished 10 stories"), a weekly "new this week" digest, a win-back email for lapsed subscribers, and an invoice PDF attachment.
